Canine Health: Diseases

The first letter of each of the "DHLPPC" shots/diseases is listed below. Juniors: Write in the name of the disease. Intermediates and Seniors: Write in the name, then match it with the correct symptoms.

D__________________

1. A bacterial disease that can infect humans. Symptoms include ulcers on the tongue, weakness and depression.

H__________________

2. Attacks bone marrow, lymph nodes, heart, and intestines. Includes two forms: Enteric and Myocardial.

L__________________

3. Highly contagious and dangerous. Symptoms include loss of appetite, discharge from nose and eyes, and hardening of pads.

P__________________

4. Spreads through secretions. Symptoms are loss of appetite, bloody stools and vomit, and dehydration.

P__________________

5. Commonly known as part of the Kennel Cough complex. Attacks the respiratory system.

C__________________

6. Spreads through contact with secretions. Symptoms include red or jaundiced eyes, nasal and optic discharge, and opacity of eyes after recovery (blue eyes).

Made by the Canis Major 4-H Club in Thurston County, WA

Unlimited reproduction granted to non-profit groups